Who should attend? Those working with families or family members of people with addiction problems.	Venue: Mayoralty House, Galway City
Number of Places Available: 12	Trainers: Siobhán Maher, Liam O' Loughlin
Course Description: "The 5-step method is a brief psychosocial intervention to support family members in their own right who have a close relative with an alcohol or drug problem. " The 5-Step Method training was developed in the UK by ADFAM and is being promoted nationally by the National Family Support Network.
THE PRINCIPLES OF THE 5-STEP METHOD:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The method is clearly focused on affected and concerned family members experiencing the substance misuse of a relative within the family • The method takes a view of family members as ordinary people attempting to respond to highly stressful experiences. • With the appropriate level of knowledge and support family members have the capacity to cope and respond to an addiction problem of a relative
CRITERIA FOR PARTICIPATION IN 5-STEP METHOD TRAINING:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To agree to work to the principles of the 5-step method. • To attend, in full, a two-day training session facilitated by the NFSN that will teach trainees how to use the 5-step intervention with family members. • To pay a cost of €120 (reduced from €250) to the NFSN to cover the cost of the training, materials and assessment of one full 5-Step Method intervention (audio recordings of 5 sessions) and relevant documentation. The NFSN is not profiting from this initiative. • To already be working with families or family members of people with addiction problems, or to have ready access to them. • Be committed to do some preparatory work before attending the training. Each participant will receive a copy of the self-help handbook, the workers handbook, the 5-step method DVD and a journal article; Copello, A., Templeton, L., Orford, J. And R. Velleman (2010c) 'The 5-Step Method: Principles and Practice'. Drugs: Education, Prevention, and Policy, 17:s1, pp. 86-99. • Participants will need to be adequately aware of safeguarding procedures, have supervision and have a line manager's and/or organisation's support to be involved in this training. • Be willing to take part in the evaluation process and be committed to moving forward for accreditation of your practice in the 5-Step Method. The payment of €120 incorporates the cost of assessment. If for any reason you do not proceed with the assessment process this cost is non-refundable.
Further inquiries: Liam O Loughlin 087-6217728
