Practical information and tips on how to approach the issue of Alcohol with your Child
IT IS IMPORTANT TO HAVE A CONVERSATION WITH YOUR CHILD TO HELP PREPARE THEM FOR MAKING DECISIONS

HOW TO HAVE THE CONVERSATION

PLAN
- Find a good time and include your partner where possible
- Know what you want to say
- Have your facts right
- Be age appropriate
- Use media prompts: News reports on alcohol, alcohol ads on TV
- Communication is a two-way process; be prepared for questions

TALK
- Remove communication barriers like phones, games and TV
- Be clear about your expectations around alcohol
- Develop boundaries around alcohol in your home and appropriate consequences
- Be conscious of your approach: be sensitive, respectful and open to discussion
- Don’t forget to listen

FOLLOW UP
- Make sure it’s not a once-off talk
- Revisit the topic at appropriate age intervals throughout teens
- Ensure they know they can come back to you with questions or for advice

REMEMBER: YOU ARE A ROLE MODEL FOR YOUR CHILD. BE CONSCIOUS OF YOUR OWN DRINKING HABITS, ATTITUDE TO ALCOHOL AND THE SUPPLY AND STORAGE OF ALCOHOL IN YOUR HOME......
