

Course:	Responding to Drug Related Intimidation
Course Duration: 2 hour Information Session	Date: September 17, 2015
Who should attend? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Family Support Workers ▪ Social Workers ▪ Key workers ▪ Community Workers ▪ Youth Workers 	Locations: Ballinasloe
Number of Places Available: 15	Trainer: Debbie McDonagh
Course Description: An information session on drug-related intimidation to support workers (both family support workers and other workers) to facilitate family members experiencing intimidation to understand the options available to them and to avail of supports if they wish to do so.
Course Content: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Types of drug-related intimidation ▪ 8 Steps to Responding to Intimidation ▪ Information on the National Reporting Programme ▪ Responding to Intimidation Policy ▪ The Role of the Nominated Garda Inspector for each region ▪ Formal/Informal Reporting to An Garda Síochána
Learning Outcomes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase awareness of the nature and impact of drug related intimidation • Increased awareness of the national reporting programme • Increased awareness of ways to respond to families experiencing intimidation due to drug related debts • Increased knowledge of the relevant contacts in the western region regarding intimidation
Further inquiries: Contact: Debbie McDonagh debbie.mcdonagh@wrdf.ie or 087-6955557
How to book: Complete the general booking form on page 10 (stating the name and date of the course) and return to: Training. WRDATF, Unit 6, Galway Technology Park, Parkmore, Galway or email: training@wrdf.ie
Certification/Accreditation: A certificate of attendance will be awarded on completion of the session		